BHUBENISHWAR TURN OUT IN THEIR THOUSANDS

Once again David Hooker, renowned author of “Back To The Womb & Out Again with DOGASH” has pulled the crowds. Thousands turned up to listen to David on a recent visit to the town of Bhubenishwar, Orrisa, India.

This was not his first visit, it was a return visit by demand, and he did not let them down. When the seats had run out the crowds sat in the aisle, by the stage – in fact anywhere that they could find a space they sat.

His message touches the hearts of all those that listen to him as he opens their hearts and minds as to what can be achieved if one truly believes in not what they are doing but in themselves.

“If you can get through life then you can be successful at everything that you do. It is not a matter of luck but of application, of applying oneself to the task in hand. Everything comes down to creating habits. We have habits that generate life, we have habits that get us through life and so it is the same with success. Success is a habit, so is failure – you just have to decide which habit you are going to create.”

It is this simplistic but true message that is endearing David in the hearts of all Indians.

David has been a professional speaker for 35 years and has visited over 30 countries, where his presentations have been translated into many languages. He has talked to tens of thousands of Entrepreneurs and Business people from around the world about the “Keys” to becoming successful in an ever competitive world where “Attitude Is King”.

He has appeared on Television talk shows and radio phone-ins sharing his views and has written a new exciting book called “Back To The Womb & Out Again – with DOGASH” available in stores and from his website. He has also held Vice Presidential positions with some of the sales industries giants, and is the 2003 Champion Public Speaker for Ontario, Canada.

He spent 11 years in Her Majesty’s Royal Air Force, as a musician where he was awarded a medal by the Lord Mayor of London for being the most outstanding musician of the year. He formed and directed his own Big Band Orchestra, has appeared in Cabaret, and is devastating at Karaoke.

His style is strong, punchy, and 100% motivational laced with typical British humour. After listening to David talk not only will you have a better grasp of the opportunity that lies before you, you will WANT to go out and change your attitude forever.
